At the December 2020 City Council meeting, rate increases in daily fees, membership, and punch cards was approved. During COVID restrictions, it was decided not to make any changes until we could operate more “normally”. Now that some of the restrictions have been lifted, new daily rates will be enforced beginning March 29. There is a resident rate and non-resident rate. A resident is someone who lives in the City of Sartell, the Sartell-St. Stephen School District, or goes to school in Sartell. You will need to provide proof of residency by showing your Driver’s License, School ID or government issued id.
